MILA DAY WILL BE CELEBRATED IN NEW YORK ON JUNE 24

Right before the second anniversary of the startup of operations of the Latin American Integrated Market (MILA), the securities markets of Chile, Peru and Colombia will celebrate the first Mila Day on June 24 in the city of New York.

The idea is to bring together the main foreign investors with representatives from Mila member markets, which will make it possible to move forward in the knowledge and dissemination of the initiative.

As commented on the Santiago Stock Exchange, the market comprised of the three countries "has become an investment alternative and an attractive hub of interest in the region, forming a single, diversified, extensive securities market with great opportunities for investors."

Representatives of the Government, and market authorities and regulators of the Chile, Colombia and Peru markets; stock exchange members; as well as high-ranking representatives of local and foreign financial institutions participate on this market.

Mila is currently comprised of more than 550 companies, 18 of which have a strong presence on foreign markets with ADR listed on the NYSE.

"MILA is now in a phase of expanding knowledge and promoting the market to attract foreign investors to the markets of Chile, Colombia and Peru. To this effect, the objective of Mila Day New York is to bring the international financial community together with the three markets and their wide range of investment opportunities," they added from the Chilean Stock Exchange.

➤ LINKEDIN, STARBUCKS AND FACEBOOK WILL BE LISTED ON THE SANTIAGO STOCK EXCHANGE

On March 21, Deutsche Securities Corredores de Bolsa Limitada will list 60 stocks of American companies, which will be traded on the Santiago Stock Exchange and guarded by the Central Securities Depository (DCV in its Spanish acronym).

The 60 stocks will be listed on the Securities and Insurance Superintendence sponsored by Deutsche Corredores de Bolsa. The aforementioned listing in Chile is not an initial public offering of shares, but rather the listing and authorization of stocks already on the market of origin. The listing will be made to provide Chilean investors with access to the main foreign securities.

The CEO of the Santiago Stock Exchange, José Antonio Martínez held the second listing of foreign securities on the local market and stated that "this incorporation adds to the foreign market currently on the Santiago Exchange: There are already 375 foreign funds, 332 foreign MILA stocks, 21 other foreign stocks, 4 Chilean ADRs and 105 foreign ETFs.
